The Battles for Lipno Nowe and Klonówiec

- In the south, companies from Jarocin and Kościan defended Lipno Nowe and Klonówiec, which were attacked by a German half-battalion accompanied by two armoured trains. The successful defence forced the enemies to retreat. 3 wagons were left behind. 4 Germans were killed and 14 were wounded. On the Polish side, there were 5 wounded insurgents.

- The Germans attacked once again in the Łabiszyn section. They managed to cross the Noteć River near the town of Ruda. There was a series of clashes, which were won by the insurgents.
