25 January 1919

Formal abolition of Prussian regulations that limited education in Polish

- Wojciech Trąpczyński, as President of the Poznań Province, issued a regulation abolishing Prussian laws that restricted education in Polish. The regulations applied in the area occupied by insurgent armies.

- The insurgents' post in Kargowa was reinforced by a company from Wolsztyn commanded by Second Lieutenant Stanisław Tomiak, while the post in Babimost received reinforcements in the form of Second Lieutenant Kazimierz Szcześniak's company from Wielichowo.
