Battles for Torzeniec

- In the Ostrzeszów section, a German company equipped with 2 cannons and 3 machine guns occupied the village of Torzeniec. Insurgents, reinforced by units from Ostrzeszów, Doruchów and Grobelno, recovered it, attacking from the side of Rudniczysko.
- The commander of the Kcynia section, Second Lieutenant Konrad Gólniewicz, asked for reinforcements from Gniezno.
- By order of the Central Command, the 1st Greater Poland Mounted Rifle Regiment was renamed the 1st Regiment of Greater Poland Uhlans.
