

Greater Poland Uprising 1918-1919

<https://pw.ipn.gov.pl/pwe/calendar/2973,14-February-1919.html>
24.09.2026, 18:57

14 February 1919

Wojciech Trąmpczyński appointed Marshal of the Legislative Parliament

- Wojciech Trąmpczyński, Supreme President of the Poznań Province and Member of Parliament in the Reich, representing the territory of the former Prussian Partition in the Legislative Parliament, was appointed as First Speaker of the Parliament of reborn Poland.

- Second Lieutenant Matuszewski's company from Szamotuły defended itself against a German attack on the Ujście-Czarnków line, and counterattacked. The insurgents, formed in a line, were exposed to heavy fire from the Germans.

- The repulsing of another German attack on Kąkolewo, which was attacked by two armoured trains and a company of infantry.

Wojc

iech
Trą mpc zyns ki