29 May 1919

Subordinating the Greater Poland Army to the Supreme Command of the Polish Army

The Supreme Command issued a secret order:
“By decree of the Supreme People’s Guard in Poznań, armies formed in the Prussian Partition now become subordinated to the Supreme Command of the Polish Army. This information should be passed on by means of a secret order to all commanders, including battalion commanders. Publication of the message is for the time being forbidden due to political reasons.”
